SUBJECT

Notary Publics for the C & M Station & Bangalore

There have been two Notary Publics for the C & M Station: Mr. J.C.S. Lawrance is one of these, & the other has been the Agent of the Mysore Bank, Bangalore. Mr. Gerrard, the late Agent, has left the country for good & resigned his office as Notary Public. It is proposed to appoint Mr. Clarke his successor as Notary Public & he is willing to be appointed.

2. As the Mesrs. Gerrard & Clarke suggest that the appointment of the Agent of the Mysore Bank as Notary Public be made by virtue of his office in the Bank & the office of Agent became vacant, the suggestion could have been adopted. It might then be Mr. Clarke's

Mr. C. W. Cole who was the Agent of the Bank of Madras at Bangalore was appointed a Notary Public in the Station by Not. N. 2114-DD., dated the 25th Sept. 1916, of the G. of I. in the For. & Pol. Dept.

But his successor was not appointed as such and the present Agent of the Imperial Bank of India has not been appointed so.

S. 62

The Resident appointed Mr. C. N. Shiva Shankar, B. A., B.L., on the 7th August 1917, to be a Notary Public in the Station. He continues to be so. His the only Notary Public in the Station at present. Vide page 17 of the Residency List.

Sir

I have the honour to state that Mr. W. M. Gerrard agent of the Madras Bank, Bangalore Branch who was appointed to be a Notary Public within the limits of the Civil and Military Station, by Government of India, Foreign Department, Notification No 1238 I.A., dated the 27th March 1902 (a copy of which was received with your office endorsement No 1940, dated the 7th April 1902) has resigned his appointment with effect from the 28th February 1911. A copy of his letter is enclosed herewith. On receipt of this letter I wrote to his successor Mr. Sydenham Clarke asking him whether he had any objection to act as Notary Public in place of Mr. Gerrard. In reply Mr. Clarke intimates that he is prepared to undertake the duties of the office. A copy of the letter received from him is enclosed herewith for the orders of the Hon'ble the Resident. It will be seen that both these gentlemen suggest that it would save trouble in future if the Agent of the Bank of Madras for the time being be appointed as Notary Public by virtue of his office. Sir,

Mr. J.C.Lawrance, Advocate, who was appointed Notary Public in the Foreign Department Notification No 2114, dated 25th May 1892, died on the 4th instant. I recommend that Mr. C.N. Surya Prakas Rao, B.A. & B.L., an Advocate of this court and the Official Receiver under the Provincial Insolvency Act, may be appointed to be a Notary Public vice Lawrance deceased.

2. The Official Receiver's Office is located within the premises of the District Court and it would be a convenience to the public if the Office of Notary Public also located therein. Mr Surya Prakas is an Advocate of high character and ability. His practise being mostly confined to the courts in the Civil and Military Station, he will easily be accessible to the public in the Office of the Official Receiver for purpose of noting bills under the Negotiable Instruments Act. The other Notary Public of the Station is the local agent of the Bank of

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith the application of Mr. J.L.D'silva, Advocate, praying that he may be appointed a Notary Public for the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore, for the favourable consideration of the Hon'ble the Resident. Mr. J.L.D'silva is one of the leading advocates in the Station and has a fairly large European and Anglo-Indian clientele. Besides commanding a decent practice at the bar, he has got also a fair volume of chamber work, such as conveyancing etc. He is also a Municipal Councillor. I have no hesitation in commending the application for the favourable consideration of the Hon'ble the Resident.

Dear Sir,

I pray that you might be pleased to empower me to exercise the powers of a Notary Public in the Civil and Military Station on the following grounds.

1. I find in the whole of Bangalore there are only two Notary Publics viz: Mr. Surya Prakas and Mr. E.P.Swinhoe. I am given to understand on reliable information that Mr. Swinhoe is not practising as an Advocate and has no place of business wherein people could find him.

SL 62, 63

2. I have a great number of European and Anglo-Indian clients who very often get documents, dividends, etc., from England and elsewhere to be signed before a Notary Public and they are usually put to some inconvenience on account of this.

3. I am an Advocate of the Hon'ble the Resident's Court and a Vakil of the Madras High Court. I have had considerable experience in Notarial work as I was connected for the last five years with Messrs. Grant & Greatorex who were Solicitors and Notaries Public in Madras.

4. If appointed, I shall also be available for noting bills, etc., under the Negotiable Instruments Act. This work also I get sometimes from England which I have to return being not a Notary Public.

Awaiting a favourable reply,

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Yours obediently,
